MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

Comes now the Plaintiff, Adrian Elizabeth Lyles, by her attorneys, Thomas G. Slater and Campbell and Slater, P.C., and does hereby move for summary judgment against the Defendant, The Board of Education of Frederick County, as cause therefor states as follows:

1. That on December 29, 1987, by Order of the Honorable Mary Ann Stepler, Judge of this Court, the Plaintiff was granted leave to proceed in this matter by mailing a notice to the Defendant's last known address and by posting of a Notice by the Sheriff in a conspicuous place on the subject property. Subsequently, the Board of Education of Frederick County and any and all Persons Claiming An Interest in 5309 Route 17, Burkittsville, Maryland, also known as Horsey's School, Frederick, Maryland, were personally served by the Plaintiff and the Plaintiff's agents, and the said notice was posted on the Court House door on a bulletin board within the vicinity by the Frederick County Sheriff's Department in accordance with Rule 2-122(a). The Notice posted on the subject property warned any and all interested parties to file his or her initial pleading in response to the Plaintiff's Complaint on or before February 29,
